OLD DR. MARX'S MONEY.

The Latest Addition to a Series of Will Contests in the New York Courts.

A telegram from New York says: Old Dr. Marx was the court physician to the King of Hanover. In 1815, he, his wife, and three children came to this country and settled at Richmond. Va. One of the Doctor's children, Asher, came to New York and married a member of the Livingston family; another, Joseph, settled in Richmond, Va., and the remaining son, George, went to England, where he was married. Asher had three daughters and one son. The latter died. Taree daughters, Emma Julia, Caroline Maria, and Catharine Henrietta, were old maids. About 1868 Caroline Maria paid a visit to England, and on her return to this city found that Emma Julia had died and left all her property to Catharine Henrietta. Caroline threatened to contest the will, but the matter was settled by Catharine giving her half the estate. Caroline died in 1878, leaving her life-estate in all her property to the Rev. J. B. Bradley and the residuary estate to the Cathelic Little Sisters of the Poor. Catharine contested the will, but the Surrocate upheld it. An appeal was taken to the Cathelle Little Sisters of the Poor. Catharine contested the will, but the Surrogate upheld it. An appeal was taken to the general term of the Supreme Court, where the Surrogate's decision was affirmed. The case was then carried to the Court of Appeals, where the decision was also usually except the bequest to the Little Sisters of the Poor, which was held to be reid.

Ladles of the bighest circles in this city have worked with might and main since the Veterans' Fair commenced. There has been no flagging in their zeal. They labor both night and day, and they have made the Fair a success. They have been lo strumptial in seiling many goods and in miling of many others, and they will go trumphantly on to the end.

The Fair is every night x scene of briliancy and beauty. The Armory is richly decorated. It is lighted by electricity. Aband of music is in place in the galler very night. The booths are filled with showy goods and beautiful girl-waiters. The best people go and buy and take chances in the raffics, and make themselves agreeable to strangers and 60 all they can be help on the good cause. Each of the linbs having won one of the two gam blayed here, the excitement and anxiety he crowd was great. The players, to n both clubs knew well that "two out here?" pould only he accomplished both clubs being blanked up to the fourth imning. At this time, by errors made by the home boys, Oldfield and Goodman scored runs and brought forth the liberal applause of the crowd. The third man was, however, soon retired, thus closing the inning. Glenn then led off at the bat, sending a ball to left-field, which was muffed by Bradley, giving him his first. Bradley then threw the ball to first base, and, making a wild pitch, threw the ball over the first fence. Glenn, taking advantage of the error, made a beautiful run, and scored home, for which he was liberally applauded. The Virginias then made a score of four in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning, the visitors being successfully blanked in every inning after the fourth. The playing on the whole of both clubs was very good, but the Virginias proved rather strong for the visitors. The feature of the game was a run made by Doyle from first to see and when the ball was being handled on him by Pyle, Hamilton, and wever, soon retired, thus closing the in handled on him by Pyle, Hamilton, and Higgins. at 5 o'clock P. M., the PROPERTY described in said deed, as follows: The BLANDON FARM of P. M. Tabb, in Hearico co"nty, near the city of Richmond, containing 25 4 5 ACRES, more or less, 1ving south of the old Westham turnpike, now tree continuation of Cary street, and lies just beyond and adjoining the new City Reservoir Park, and was conveyed to said P. M. Tabb by two deeds—one from R. C. Page and wife October 18, 1849, and the other from Archibald Thomas and wife 3-mary 1, 1861. The improvements consist of a confortable BRICK DW ELLING, containing six or eight rooms, with the usual out-buildings, and a well of excellent water. This land is not only very valuable for farming purposes (having been kept in a high state of califyation for a number of years), but is new considered the most desirable in that section on account of its proximity to the public Park, which has grown in the past year or two to be the most fashionable and attractive place near the city. The grounds its beautifully, the place is healthy, and is destined to become very valuable: and this sale, altogether, offers more inducements for solid investment than any that has taken place in the neighberhood of Richmond for some time.

A UCTION SALE OF IMPROVED AND UNIMPROVED SEVENTEENTHSTREET PROPERTY.—By request of the parties in interest, we will sell by auction, upon the premises, on FRIDAY THE 3CTH DAY OF MAY, 1884,

FRIDAY THE 30TH DAY OF MAY, 1884, at 5 o'clock P. M., in the order following—
First. That TWO-STORY BRICK STORE, No. 1207 north Seventeenth street, with DWELLING ABOVE. The LOT has a front of 35 feet on the east line of seventeenth street, by a depth of 120 feet, more or less, to a street in rear 30 feet wide. Good well of writer in the yard.

Secondly. Immediately after the sale of the above, we will sell the SMALL BRICK DWELL-ING adjoining the above on the north, and numbered 1209. The LOT has a front of 25 feet, by 120, to the street in rear.

Thirdly. After the above, we will sell the TWO VACANT LOTS adjoining the above on the north. Each lot has a front of 25 feet, by the depth named above. The lots are well saited for building purposes, and would yield a handsome per cent. upon the amount required to build. Property in this locality commands ready tenants, owing to its nearness to the Chesspeake and Ohio Railway and Messrs. Tanner & Company's shops.

TEXMS: Easy, and made known at time of sale.
